In addition, pursuant to section 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the foregoing demand includes not only notices and papers referred to in the Rules specified above, but also includes, without limitation save and except as set forth in the last paragraph hereof, orders on and notices of any application, motion, petition, pleading, request, complaint or demand, whether formal or informal, whether written or oral, and whether transmitted or conveyed by mail, delivery, telephone, copier, telegraph, telex or otherwise, which affects the Debtor or property of the Debtor or the estate.

Neither this Notice of Appearance nor any subsequent appearance, pleading, claim, or suit is intended to waive (i) Creditor's rights to have final orders in non-core matters entered only after de novo review by a district judge; (ii) Creditor's rights to trial by jury in any proceeding so triable herein, or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto; (iii) Creditor's rights to have the reference withdrawn by the District Court in any matter subject to mandatory or discretionary withdrawal; (iv) any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, at law or in equity, all of which rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, and recoupments Creditor expressly reserves; or (v) Creditor's right to service directly on it in any adversary proceeding or lawsuit in which it is named as a party.

proceeding or lawsuit against Creditor, and in fact, no such designation has been made. All service on Creditor in any adversary proceeding or lawsuit against Creditor must be made on
